F. Scott Fitzgerald's
THE GREAT GATSBY
adapted for the stage by Simon Levy

Wednesday, April 22 - Sunday, May 10, 2020

Jay Gatsby, a self-made millionaire, passionately pursues the elusive Daisy Buchanan. Nick Carraway, a young newcomer to Long Island, is drawn into their world of obsession, greed and danger. A beautifully crafted interpretation of the 1925 novel which defined the Jazz Age, Simon Levy's play captures the breathtaking glamor and decadent excess of the 1920s.

Native Gardens
By Karen Zacarias

Wednesday, May 27 - Sunday, June 14, 2020

A fence divides two backyards. An older white couple has lived for a long time on one side of the fence. On the other side, a young Latino couple has just moved in. Both couples are avid gardeners. One garden has lush grass and symmetrical garden beds. The other is unkempt, natural and organic. Gardens and cultures clash, turning friendly neighbors into feuding enemies in this new comedy of good intentions and bad manners.

A romantic stage adaptation of a modern classic film, Ghost the Musical follows Sam and Molly, a young couple whose connection takes a shocking turn after Sam's untimely death. Trapped between two worlds, Sam refuses to leave Molly when he learns she is in grave danger. Desperate to communicate with her, he turns to a storefront psychic, Oda Mae Brown, who helps him protect Molly and avenge his death. A moving heartfelt love story with a beautiful score, including "Unchained Melody," that makes you want to hold on to your loved ones a little more tightly.

The Mousetrap
By Agatha Christie
Wednesday, October 28 - Sunday, November 15, 2020

Agatha Christie, the Mistress of Mystery, brings you her most popular creation, The Mousetrap. When a group of strangers are trapped together at a manor house during a snowstorm, they soon discover one of them is a murderer! Is it the newlyweds whose rampant suspicions nearly wreck their marriage? Maybe it's the eccentric woman with the curious background. It could be the architect, the retired Army Major or the odd man who claims his car overturned in a snow drift! We'll never tell... You would think audiences would know whodunnit by now, but after more than half a century they are still guessing! Currently celebrating its 60th year in London, The Mousetrap will have you gripping the edge of your seat!
